The course will be held in Zurich in June 2019. Registration and Information on the link provided below.

The course address the following questions:
- how to set up research for academic journals?
- how to structure an academic paper for publication in selected journals?
- how to address editorial boards
- how to cope with editorial recommendations
- how to set up a publication strategy?

Students will either present their own works or study and present "academic papers model" they have identified in the literature.

Resources

Websites