Frequency
Every 2 years

Remarque
March 15-22-29 and April 5 and 12, 2019. « Minimum of participants for the course to take place : 15 »

Summary
The purpose of the course is to introduce the participants to the main legal rules and principles of Swiss, European and International energy law on selected topical issues, and to examine the main contractual framework in the oil and gas sector.

Content
- General introduction on energy law and regulation (jurisdiction, legal and regulatory framework)
- Legal and Contractual Regime of Exploration, Exploitation and Transportation of Mineral Resources (oil and gas, incl. shale oil and gas)
- Introduction to Nuclear Law and Regulation: Commissioning, Decommissioning, Wastes, Liability
- Climate Change and the Law (joint implementation, clean development mechanisms, CO2 emission trading, capture and storage)