Summary

Through field expeditions, keynote lecture, discussion, workshops, and exchanges with experts, participants will contribute to the production of a synthetic "transect" across a continuous water landscape, from the Aletsch glacier to the Rhone valley floor, revealing larger territorial logics.

ContentNote

Teaching involves 4 expedition days, 1 production day, and 1 final critique day. All participants are required to take part in the full 6-day summer school; mountain hiking is required. Participation fees cover accommodation including full board at Villa Cassel. Master students (ETH/EPFL): CHF 100; Doctoral students (ETH/EPFL): CHF 250; Doctoral/master students (external university): CHF 500.
