Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the student must be able to:

- Express clear, well-structured, extended academic texts in an appropriate style (articles, reports, thesis abstracts, introductions, results, discussions, conclusions, etc.)
- Use adequate argumentative techniques (describe a process, give a point of view, exemplify ideas, define terms, etc.)
- Apply the conventions, language and principles of academic writing in one's own field
- Use references and citation without plagiarism
- Use a high level of grammatical accuracy
- Recognize ntercultural and/or interdisciplinary differences in academic writing
- Produce constructive feedback, editing one's own and colleagues' texts and improving them stylistically and grammatically
