STUDY ABROAD
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER
2014/2015
Perfect! Highly committed staff, a large variety of courses, thrilling city. I would have liked to stay longer and I’m going to recommend The University of Manchester to everybody who wants to do an exchange or has the possibility to study abroad for his/her whole degree.

Anna Würz, University of Freiburg, Germany
Welcome
to The University of Manchester

The University of Manchester is one of the top universities in Europe and indeed the world, internationally recognised for both its teaching quality and research excellence. We have teaching and research in more subjects than any other single-site British university, and due to our academic structure we are able to offer a very wide range of course units to students who choose to study abroad here.

The University of Manchester is one of Britain’s most famous civic universities, with a rich heritage of cutting-edge innovation and enterprise stretching back more than 180 years. Many of the major advances of the 20th century began at the University, including work by Rutherford leading to the splitting of the atom, and the development of the world’s first modern computer in 1948. The University – like Manchester itself – is a truly cosmopolitan community which last year welcomed students from almost 180 different nations. The vibrant campus and energy of the surrounding city creates an environment that provides an exciting place to live, study and explore.

As a student here you will be well catered for – and you can be certain that you will be studying at a university with a long and distinguished record of academic achievement. 25 of our current and former staff and students have gone on to become Nobel Prize winners – including Professors Sir Andre Geim and Sir Konstantin (Kostya) Novoselov, creators of Graphene – and our graduates include: novelist Anthony Burgess, philosopher Wittgenstein, flight pioneer Arthur Whitten-Brown, and women’s rights campaigner Christabel Pankhurst. As a student at The University of Manchester you can have the confidence of belonging to an academic community of distinction, with over 39,000 students drawn from across the world, and more than 5,500 academic and research staff, including many with international reputations in their subjects.

Studying at The University of Manchester was the best decision I have made. I grew so much personally and academically. I feel that I had such a good experience because of the diversity of the student body and professors.

You can choose from a wide range of subjects to construct your academic Study Abroad Programme, and, subject to meeting pre-requisites (or the terms of the exchange agreement), you are not restricted to studying with one discipline area. We also offer a number of specialist Pathways, which enable exchange and Study Abroad fee-paying students to focus on areas such as Pre-Law, Leadership and Service, and English Language. Details of these Pathways can be found on pages 26-28.

You can apply to join our Study Abroad Programme as either an Exchange student or a Study Abroad fee-paying student.

Study Abroad fee-paying students

If you are currently studying at a university outside the United Kingdom, you can apply to spend a semester or full year here at The University of Manchester, usually earning credit towards the degree you will receive from your home university. Students find that spending a period of study at one of the world’s best universities is not only a great experience in itself, but also enhances their academic insights, employability and life skills.

You can apply to the Study Abroad Programme for a particular year, or because your discipline area is not covered by the exchange agreement. You can apply to join us as a Study Abroad fee-paying student (for example, because there are insufficient places in another country. I was worried about what kind of support would be available in another country. I was very impressed with the excellent support I received. It made me feel much more confident. I would highly recommend studying at The University of Manchester to any student who wants a great academic experience in an amazing city.

Study Abroad at The University of Manchester

Tuition fees are payable for your study with us. Exchange students

The University of Manchester has exchange partners around the world. These partnerships enable eligible students based at partner universities to spend either a year or semester with us, usually without independently paying any tuition fees to The University of Manchester. To be eligible to join us as an Exchange student, your home university must nominate you. Some of our exchange agreements allow students from any discipline area to join us, whilst others are only open to students from specific disciplines.

We welcome students from exchange partners all over the world – both under the Erasmus Programme (EU exchanges) and our Worldwide (non-EU) Exchange Programme.

Exchange Extra

If you study at an exchange partner university, but are not eligible to join us as an Exchange student (for example, because there are insufficient places in a particular year, or because your discipline area is not covered by the exchange agreement), you can apply to us as a Study Abroad fee-paying student, and will receive a 10% ‘Exchange Extra’ discount off the regular study abroad tuition fee.

Accommodation
The University offers you a wide range of residential accommodation, ranging from modern self-catering apartments through to traditional collegiate-style halls of residence. Your residence is the place where you’ll meet new friends and spend a lot of your free time. They are self-contained communities with their own bars, common rooms and a hectic programme of social activities you may wish to get involved in. Additionally, halls of residence have their own sports teams – rugby, hockey, cricket, netball and squash are just some of the sports available – and some have other social groups in-house – orchestras, choirs, drama and other societies.

More information about housing can be found on the Accommodation Office’s website: www.manchester.ac.uk/accommodation

Your application for housing should also be made via this site.

Applications studying abroad at Manchester for a year are guaranteed a room in University accommodation, whilst students coming for one semester only, although not guaranteed accommodation, will almost certainly be allocated University accommodation under normal circumstances. Some halls have specially adapted flats or rooms for students with a disability and some catered halls are able to assist if you have special dietary requirements.

Please note that in catered residences, catering is not provided during University vacation periods, and a reduced service is sometimes available at weekends.

Students’ Union
The University of Manchester Students’ Union is an organisation run by and for all students at The University of Manchester – it is autonomous from the University and is democratically controlled at all levels by students. It exists to provide cultural, recreational, educational support and representation for all its members.

A myriad of societies, run by and for students, are organised within the Students’ Union, whilst students coming for one semester only, although not guaranteed accommodation, will almost certainly be allocated University accommodation under normal circumstances. Sounds of the City

Musically, the city cannot be surpassed. This is the city responsible for Oasis, New Order, The Smiths, Take That, Badly Drawn Boy, and countless others. Classical music lovers will also have a wide choice including the Bridgewater Hall (where the Hallé and the BBC Philharmonic orchestras perform) and the Royal Northern College of Music. Big names play at The Academy, our music venue based on campus right next to the Students’ Union.

Theatre and Film

Theatre and film is at the heart of Manchester’s cultural scene. The University has its own theatre and arts venue, the Contact Theatre, and the city is home to many large and small theatres, comedy clubs and performance venues. Manchester also has the true cine city. As well as swarms of multiplex cinemas, there’s the Cornerhouse cinema only a short walk from the University – which tends to show more leftfield, foreign and arthouse films.

Sport

Manchester is home to world-class sports facilities such as the National Squash Centre, the North West Regional Basketball Centre and Manchester Velodrome. Manchester United are probably the city’s most famous export – their Old Trafford football ground seats around 76,000 and is the largest club ground in Britain. Cricket enthusiasts can check out rising stars at Lancashire’s Old Trafford cricket ground.

Beyond the UK...

For those who prefer to play sport, the University Athletics Union offers clubs from Archery to Yachting; in addition, there are many local amateur teams that welcome students. As you would expect with a city of massive sporting reputation, the campus has many excellent sports facilities all offering student discounts. For example, the Manchester Aquatics Centre, which was purpose built for the 2002 Commonwealth Games, is one of our premier sports facilities with state-of-the-art pools and a large fitness suite. Also on campus, you’ll find the modern Sugden Sports Centre and near to Owens Park halls of residence is the Armittage Centre with facilities for five-a-side football, badminton, squash, martial arts and weight-lifting.

Art and Museums

Manchester’s galleries and museums are world class. The University of Manchester’s Whitworth Art Gallery is home to an impressive range of watercolours, prints, drawings, modern art and sculptures, as well as the largest collections of textiles and wallpapers outside London. Located on campus, the University’s own Manchester Museum has won plaudits and awards, and is one of the best in the city; often free entry. The Imperial War Museum North, the Museum of Science and Industry, Urbis, the Lowry and the Manchester Art Gallery are also not to be missed.

Fashion Flare

You may not be a student of fashion retailing, but you’ll probably still be pleased to know that Manchester has an enviable range of big high street and designer names, bargain boutiques and chic boutiques. Leithdees, Harvey Nichols, Patrick Cox, Vivienne Westwood, Armani, DKNY, Hugo Boss and Paul Smith all have upmarket stores in the city centre. The nearby Trafford Centre – a 150 acre out-of-town shopping and leisure mall – is also home to around 200 high street and designer outlets. Many students also enjoy browsing in Afflecks Palace and other second hand and independent stalls in the city’s Northern Quarter.
Taste sensations
Manchester is a truly cosmopolitan city. Waves of immigrant communities – German, Jewish, Irish, Italian, West Indian, Chinese, Indian and Pakistanis to name but a few – have migrated into the city, adding their customs and cultures to the melting pot. Check out Rusholme’s Curry Mile, a road full of neon-lit restaurants. As the name suggests, Rusholme’s shan-e-bangla music shops and exotic fruit and veg stores aren’t the real reason for its fame. Each week, 15,000 people flock here to savour curry in the 50 or so outlets that make up Europe’s highest concentration of Asian eateries. Aside from Greek, Italian and Armenian cuisine, there’s also the bustling Chinatown centred around the impressive Ming Dynasty Imperial Arch, with famous restaurants such as Charlie Chan and Yang Sing.

If you want to cook for yourself and would like to try something other than traditional English food, you’ll be able to find a range of international food including Halal and Kosher products in areas like Chinatown and Rusholme (which has a large Asian community) and in most supermarkets. There is a large Chinese supermarket just five minutes’ walk from the University and there are vegetarian and international cafés on campus. There are regular farmers’ markets selling fresh, local produce, and seasonal European and international markets visit the city on a regular basis.

Religions and Faiths
Manchester is a large cosmopolitan city, with places of worship for the vast majority of faiths and religions available on campus and in the city. There are two chaplaincy centres for the major Christian churches on campus. St Peter’s House provides Chaplains for the Anglican, Baptist, Methodist and United Reformed Churches, while the Roman Catholic Chaplaincy is at Asla House. Two Prayer Rooms are provided on campus, and a number of Mosques are conveniently located near to the University and student areas. There are many Buddhist Centres across the city, various Jewish synagogues, and facilities for Sikh and Hindu worship close to the popular residential areas. There are many Reformed Churches, while the Roman Catholic Chaplaincy is at Asla House. The Catholic Chaplaincy at the University provides Chaplains for the Anglican, Baptist, Methodist and United Reformed Churches, while the Roman Catholic Chaplaincy is at Asla House. Two Prayer Rooms are provided on campus, and a number of Mosques are conveniently located near to the University and student areas.

Location, Location, Location
While Manchester has a beguiling way of claiming your heart, we know that you will want to explore beyond the city and even perhaps beyond Britain whilst you are studying with us. Because of its prime location on the national and international network of airline routes, rail links and motorways, Manchester operates as a gateway to all areas of the country and to the rest of Europe. There are direct flights from Manchester International Airport to major European cities and beyond. Closer to Manchester you can find the Lake District National Park and Snowdonia National Park, and closer still beautifully maintained country houses and parkland dating from as early as the 15th century.

Weather in Manchester
Like the rest of the UK, the weather in Manchester can be described as ‘changeable’. It has a temperate climate and in the summer, you can expect some long sunny days, when students like to make use of the green areas on campus and the many parks that are nearby. The winter months can be cold with occasional light snowfall, and rain can fall at any time of year, so pack an umbrella!

Teaching: Innovation and Quality

The University’s academic excellence is complemented by its track record of providing innovative courses that place us at the forefront of teaching and learning. Our strong research profile means that teaching is constantly kept up-to-date with the latest thinking and technology. You will be taught by acknowledged experts and international leaders and your syllabus will be informed by the very latest knowledge.

Manchester is an international leader in an ‘enquiry-based’ approach to teaching. This is where you will follow your own lines of interest and discussion, meaning that you will formulate your own ideas and opinions, as well as drawing on academic expertise. It has been proven that this approach equips you better for leading roles after you have graduated.

The curriculum is also becoming more and more cross-disciplinary resulting in you meeting students from other disciplines to explore ideas from alternative perspectives. At The University of Manchester you will be involved in a variety of teaching methods, with e-Learning and lab based work alongside more traditional lectures and seminars.

Assessment

If you are studying with us during the Fall semester only, and your home university’s Spring semester starts in early January, it may be possible for you to be assessed early in some subjects so that you can return home in time for the start of your Spring semester. The courses marked as AA on the following list have early/alternative assessment available in circumstances where there is a clash of semester dates. Please note that alternative assessment is not available in semester 2 under any circumstances.

Examples (not exhaustive) of course units available across the University are listed in the following pages. For the complete list of course units available and how to find syllabus descriptions for each, please visit: www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges

Please note that restrictions apply to course units offered in some subject areas and that an appropriate academic background is always required. Erasmus exchange students are largely restricted to study within the academic Subject Area covered by the exchange agreement.

Study Abroad students are able to ‘pick and mix’ course units from across disciplines* to construct a programme of academic study that is appropriate for their interests and requirements.

The University of Manchester is proud of its teaching and strives to ensure its courses are as up to date and relevant as possible. This commitment means that the courses listed throughout this Guide provide a guideline only and are subject to change without notice.

I really felt happier in the few months I have spent in Manchester. I learnt so many things and met so many people, I am still amazed. The place is truly beautiful and the people are great. I really felt warmly welcomed and at my ease during my staying. I feel like I have grown and acquired a better knowledge of myself and I have more self-assurance.

The Odyssey; The Roman Emperors 18BC-422AD; Politics and Society in Classical Greece 450-322BC; Greek Epic Poetry; Constructing Greek History 700-323BC; Greek Mythology; Roman Law in Context.

Computer Science
The University of Manchester has been at the forefront of the computing revolution for more than 50 years. Contributions range from building the world’s first stored-program computer (1948) to creating image processing software used for the Oscar winning film ‘Cold Mountain’. The School of Computer Science remains today as a world leader in innovation and academic excellence, being ranked first for research power in England in the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise.

Example course units (not exhaustive)
Object Oriented Programming with Java I/II; Artificial Intelligence Fundamentals; The Underlying Machine; Reasoning About Programs; Imperative Programming with C and C++; Software Engineering; Operating Systems; Computer Graphics; Computer Networks; Logic in Computer Science; Subsymbolic Processing and Neural Networks; Digital Systems; Microcontrollers; The Implementation and Power of Computer Languages; Systems on-chip; Introduction to Algorithms and Data Structures; Digital Design Techniques; Mobile Systems; Digital Wireless Communications and Networks; Theory of Games and Game Models; Robotics; High Performance Microprocessors; Concurrency; Cryptography and Network Security.

Drama AA
Manchester has a wide-reaching reputation for the quality of its research into Performance, Applied Theatre and Screen Studies. The disciplinary approach of Drama at Manchester combines an emphasis on historical and theoretical perspectives with practical exploration and understanding.

Example course units (not exhaustive)
Drama in a European Context; Theatre, Performance and Society; Performance Practices, Practitioners in Context; Screen Studies: Art of Film, Screen Culture and Society; Transnational Chinese Cinema.

The first programmeable computer
The计算机 Industry was formed in 1964, but its history starts in December 1945, when F.C. Williams and Tom Kilburn began to work full-time on designing the first effective random access electronic storage device for use in computers, using a Cathode Ray Tube. During 1947 they produced such a device. To test it a team from the world’s first stored-program computer, the ‘Baby’, worked which for the first-time on 21 June 1948. The School continues to build on this legacy, having contributed over the years to the development of pioneering and influencing innovations. Manchester’s contribution to the discipline of research and teaching, equips students with the skills needed for a career shaping the future.

International standing
The University attracts world-renowned researchers and teachers and boasts no fewer than 25 Nobel prize winners amongst its current and former staff and students.
Earth, Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences
The School of Earth, Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences (SEAES) has a unique blend of research expertise to explore the frontiers of knowledge in the natural and man-made world. Geology and related Earth Sciences have been studied at Manchester since 1851 when WC Williamson was appointed as Professor of Natural History.

Example course units (not exhaustive)

Environmental Science AA
- Global Climate Change: Earth Resources; Environmental Challenges; Introductory Geochimistry; Environmental Investigative Techniques; Soil Science; Geomicrobiology; Biogeochemical Cycles; Hydrology; Climate and Energy, Recent Earth; Meteorology.

Earth Sciences AA
- Introduction to Palaeontology; Properties of Minerals; Interpretation of Geological Maps; Global Geotechnics; Igneous Petrology; Earth Materials; Sedimentology; Geophysics; Vertebrate Palaeontology and Evolution; Lithosphere; Processes; Mineral Deposits; Energy Resources; Ecosystems of the Past, Earth Surface Processes.

Planetary Science

Petroleum Engineering
- Formation Evaluation; Reservoir and Production Chemistry; Geomechanics for Petroleum Engineers; Drilling Engineering; Production and Surface Facilities Engineering.

Education AA
- The School of Education at The University of Manchester is independently recognised as one of the best in the country. The School has secured excellent scores in all recent teaching quality assessment exercises (including those undertaken by both QAA and OFSTED).

Example course units (not exhaustive)

Language, Literacy and Communication
- Exploring Social Justice in Education; An Introduction to Phonetics; Communication in Social Context; Computer Mediated Inter-Cultural Communication; Mass Media; Acquisition of Literacy; Bilingualism; Helping Children with Reading Difficulties.

Learning Disability Studies
- Communication and Presentation Skills; Study and Research Skills; Study Skills; Personal Development; Application to Practice; Learning Disability: Policy and Practice; Sociology: Friendships, Relationships and Sociality; Social Role Valorisation and Advocacies; Supporting Employment; Additional Support: Application to Practice.

Management and Leisure

Geography
- Social and Cultural Geographies; People, Places and Policy: Changing Equations in Cities; Earth Systems and Processes; Terrestrial Environments; Children's Geographies: Spatial Data Handling and Analysis; Material Worlds: Geographies of Natural Resources; Environmental Pollution; Health, Cities and Consumption: Quantitative and Qualitative Approaches; Hazards; Géoarchaeology; Space, Culture and Society; Atmospheric Processes and Climatic Systems.

International standing
- The University of Manchester is one of the UK's most popular universities, receiving more than 47,000 applications for undergraduate study in 2012.

Archaeology*
- Design; Structures; Construction; Technology; Urbanism; Morphology; Environmental Studies. (Note that students must have completed 3 years of undergraduate study at their home university).

*availability in 2014/15 may be restricted

Example course units (not exhaustive)

from Middle Kingdom to Economic Superpower: The Making of Modern China, 1800-2000; Forging a New World Europe c.1450-1750; Colonial Encounters: Violence, Race and The Making of the Modern World; The Making of the Modern Mind: European Thought from the Enlightenment to the First World War, Who Do You Think You Are? Gender, Class and Nation in Modern Britain; The Cultural History of Modern War; From Catastrophe to Crusade: Europe; in the Aftermath of the Vikings.

Personal Development: This is probably the biggest part. I changed a lot during my stay and I want to say thank you to Manchester for that. Manchester is a real student town. Never change that. If I had known how the student life in Manchester is, I would have applied to do my whole MPhys in Manchester.

International standing
According to the results of the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, the University of Manchester is now one of the country’s major research universities, ranked third in the UK in terms of research ‘power’ behind only Oxford and Cambridge.

Law AA
Law is available as an undergraduate degree in the UK, and legal education has been offered at Manchester since 1872. The Law library has excellent holdings in International, European and English Law, and has a valuable range of Commonwealth and American materials as well. The University Library is one of the four principal academic libraries in the United Kingdom, and is an official depository for European Union and United Nations documents. The Law School also offers a Criminology degree, with a range of interesting course units, taught from an essentially interdisciplinary perspective. See: www.law.manchester.ac.uk/ undergraduate/courses/modules for full details.

Example course units (not exhaustive)

Public Law, Contract Law, Criminal Law, Introduction to English Law, Jurisprudence, Equity and Trusts, Human Rights Law, Public International Law, Legal Methods and Systems; Crime, Law and Society; Constitutional Reform; Psychology, Crime and Criminal Justice; Medicine, Technology, Morals and the Law.

Life Sciences AA

It is an exciting time to be part of the global development of life sciences. Rapid advances in biological understanding and biotechnological innovation in the latter part of the 20th century have led to a multi-disciplinary approach. Medicine, agriculture and food technology, environmental conservation, and pharmaceutical production are all evolving rapidly in the forthcoming decades. Outstanding facilities and teaching support students in this discipline.

Example course units (not exhaustive)

Molecular Biology, Molecular Genetics, Biochemistry, Molecular Biology, Evolutionary Biology, Genetics, Developmental Biology, Molecular Biology of Development, Molecular Genetics; Biodiversity; Body Systems; Excitable Cells; Microbes, Man and the Environment; Drug; From Molecules to Man; Biochemistry (Science and the Modern World); Bioethics; Human Anatomy and Histology, Cell and Tissue Function in Human Disease; Immune Recognition and Animal Defence; Animal Behaviour; Conservation Biology, Applications of Plant Biotechnology; A History of Biology in 20 Objects, History of Life, Evolution Theory; Populations and Communities; Emerging Viruses, Ecosystems, Diseases and Ecosystems, Trees and Forests; Molecular Biology of Cancer, Animal Duties.

See: www.manchester.ac.uk/files/sciences/ studyabroadfor full details

An Introduction to Current Topics in Biology is a unit designed specifically for students who are not majoring in a life sciences subject, but have an interest in the biosciences. If you do not have other biology sciences qualifications, but are interested in this exciting and ever-expanding subject, then this unit is for you. Students will be introduced to: DNA technology, stem cell research, climate change and evolution. Students will be equipped with the background facts necessary to develop an informed opinion about current topics in order to appreciate the complexities of current biological issues. This unit will be a useful addition to a wide range of courses across the university, with information relevant to politics, law, ethics and philosophy, as well as to veterinary science. The unit is available as either a 10 UK credit or 20 UK credit option.

Studying and living in Manchester was a fantastic life experience that I will never forget.
The School of Materials has excellent processing concepts and practices. Textile materials and mathematical techniques for managers; market research and consumer behaviour; accounting and management information systems; microeconomics.

Materials Science
Introduction to Materials Science; Materials for Engineering Applications; Thermodynamics; Atomic and Molecular Nature of Materials; Mechanical Behaviour of Materials; Properties of Materials; Microstructures of Materials; Crystallography & Diffraction; Origins and Production of Materials; Degradation of Materials; Design I: Ceramic Processing of Materials; Polymer Materials Science; Design II: Phase Equilibria and Transformations; Deformation and Strengthening; Electromagnetic and Magnetic Properties of Materials; Polymer Materials and Processing; Electronic Devices; Failure of Materials; Phase Transformations in Materials; Polymer Physics; Chemical Processing of Advanced Materials; Engineering Alloys; Engineering Ceramics and Glasses; Composite Principles and Practice; Functional Ceramics; Cellular Materials.

Textile Design and Design Management
Studio-based drawing and design projects; Knit, Weave and Print Design; Fabric Production; Fundamental Textile Processes (fibre-to-yarn and yarn-to-fabric conversion); Colour and Design.

Textile Science and Technology
Fundamentals of Fibre; Yarn and Fabric Manufacturing; Mathematics; Physics; Chemistry for Textiles; Computation; Intro to Accounting; Textile Management; Microeconomics for Textiles and Clothing; Colour and Colour Measurement; ‘Smart’ Materials; Electronics; Management Law; Work Psychology; Costing and Anomers; Management Information Systems.

Fashion Retailing
Retailing: Marketing, Retailing, Processing and Technology; Fashion Operations Management; Fashion Promotion; ICT and CAD/Graphics; Fashion and Technology; Knit Churn; Consumer Behaviour; Fashion Theory.

Mathematics
The School of Mathematics is one of the biggest and most research-active schools of mathematics in the country. The School has more than 1,000 undergraduates, 180 postgraduates and 70 academic staff.

Example course units (not exhaustive)
Aerospace Engineering/ Mechanical Engineering
Aerospace Engineering; Mechanical Engineering; Renewable Energy Systems; Flight Dynamics; Sustainable Development; Computational Fluid Dynamics; Heat Transfer; High Speed Aerodynamics; Industrial Strategy.

Civil Engineering
Structures; Hydraulics; Design; Geotechnics (ground engineering); Materials; Management Surveying; Water Engineering; Earthquake Engineering; Fire Engineering; Environmental Control.

Music AA
Music at Manchester offers a friendly, stimulating and supportive environment with a broad range of courses where students can work alongside our world-class research staff. We select a high calibre of student and maintain a very strong performing tradition while cultivating musical techniques, historical musicology and composition.

Example course units (not exhaustive)
Tonality; Form and Function; Music and its Contexts; Sonic Invention; Musical Notation; Sound Design; World Music; Instrumental Composition; Aesthetic, Analysis; Approaches to MusicoLOGY; Aural Skills; Music Post 1900; Acoustics; Electroacoustic Composition; Music, Culture and Politics from Beethoven to Wagner; Early Opera.

Physics and Astronomy
The School is one of the largest physics departments in the UK. Our tradition has been established by many eminent teachers and researchers, including several Nobel Laureates.

The School boasts access to some of the world’s leading facilities for the study of Particle Physics, including the Large Hadron Collider (which will be used to discover the origin of mass). In the field of Astrobiology and Astrophysics, the School operates the famous Jodrell Bank Observatory.

The University of Manchester has the UK’s largest alumni community for a campus-based university, and is in contact with more than 222,000 of its former students spread across 200 countries. Alumni include Louis de Bernieres (Author); Andy Duncan (CEO of Channel 4); Ben Elton (Writer and Comedian); Sir Terry Leahy (Chief Executive of Tesco); Rik Mayall (Actor and Comedian); Dr Alan J Wood (Chairman, Siemens); Sir George Maxwell Richards (President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago).

Psychological Sciences AA
- Psychology has a long and impressive history at Manchester. We appointed the UK’s first Professor of Psychology in 1919 and we were at the forefront of the emergence of the discipline. If you study at Manchester, you will be joining one of the longest-established psychology departments in the UK.
- As well as being one of the largest schools of psychology in the UK, with more than 40 staff and 700 undergraduates, we pride ourselves on our innovative and coherent course structure. It focuses on the area where our research is strongest, so you know you are learning about cutting-edge theories in this exciting and challenging subject.
- Facilities: The School of Psychological Sciences benefits from excellent subject-specific facilities and equipment, including:
  - Multiple high-resolution eye-trackers
  - Child development laboratory
  - Observation suite, complete with two-way mirrors
  - Access to 1.5T and 3T MRI scanners and an observation suite, complete with two-way mirrors
  - Multiple high-resolution eye-trackers

Specialist pathways

We have a number of specialist pathways, available to both Study Abroad fee-paying and Exchange students. These pathways are designed to equip students with specific skills in a range of areas.

English Language pathway

This pathway is for students whose first language is not English, and is particularly popular with students from Japan, China and Korea. This pathway provides a period of English language study before your main year/semester academic programme.

You undertake a 5 or 10 week period of non-credit bearing English language study prior to undertaking your main academic programme. The course enables you to develop your academic listening, speaking, reading and writing skills. The Pathway is particularly suitable for students whose current English language score is only marginally below the University’s English language entry requirement for entry to the standard Study Abroad Programme.

You can undertake a full year of academic course units* (plus an additional 5 or 10 weeks, or a single semester of academic course units (plus an additional 5 or 10 weeks). You pay the standard study abroad tuition fee for either the full year or one semester (this waived for exchange students). PLUS an additional fee for the 5 or 10 week English language study (all students pay this fee). Details of the additional fees can be found here: www.ulc.manchester.ac.uk/english/full-time/pre-sessional

The language study component is carried out in the University Language Centre (ULC) at The University of Manchester. Students must complete an additional separate application form for the language study.

*One of the course units in your first semester must be ‘English Language in Use’.

Pre-Law pathway

Interested in applying to a US Law School for Graduate study?

The University of Manchester School of Law offers a study abroad pathway aimed specifically at US-based students who wish to spend one or two semesters of their junior or senior year studying law at one of the leading schools in the UK.

The programme is designed for US-based undergraduate students who are studying politics, philosophy, history, international relations, economics, business, criminology, or any other related undergraduate subject and are thinking about applying for admission to law school in the US. Unlike the US, law is an undergraduate degree in the UK, and students admitted to the programme will have the opportunity to take the same law courses that students in the UK take as part of their qualifying degree.

Many law school courses that do not have a specific pre-requisite in law will be open to students participating in the programme. This includes basic legal courses such as contracts, torts, criminal law, constitutional law, EC law, and legal method, as well as more advanced legal courses such as jurisprudence, environmental law, law and ethics in war and warfare, law, literature and art, sociology of law, and gender and the law.

The programme will give students the opportunity to explore their interest in the law, experience actual law school courses, and better prepare themselves both for law school in the US and the US law school admissions process. Students may also take up to one course per semester offered by another School in the University.

For further details on this Pre-Law pathway, please visit www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges/studyabroad/prelaw

You’ve got access to one of the UK’s largest academic libraries, more than 10,000 PCs across campus, e-learning facilities, and excellent teaching resources for both arts and sciences.

The Guardian University Guide
Leadership and Service pathway

The University of Manchester offers a pathway for students who want more than just academic credit during their time in the UK.

Students who are undertaking a year/semester abroad at Manchester can select the ‘Study Abroad plus Leadership and Service’ option, which enables them to engage with British life and society and undertake service learning alongside their academic study.

The taught leadership element of the programme helps students understand the importance of sustainable leadership that promotes environmental care, social justice and prosperity.

It provides an insight into the key challenges facing 21st century leaders and the opportunity to engage with leaders and others in the local community. Participants also gain a real insight into, and understanding of, British life and society through undertaking a period of voluntary work with a local community group/project.

The Study Abroad plus leadership and Service pathway comprises two elements:

1. Up to 50 credits of academic study towards your home university degree

2. The Manchester Leadership Programme, leading to the prestigious Manchester Leadership Award. The MLP is made up of:
   i. An accredited (10 or 20 credit) ‘Leadership in Action’ unit covering topics such as leadership theories, concepts and practice; poverty and inequality; culture and diversity; environmental sustainability; ethics and social responsibility.
   ii. Up to 60 hours of accredited volunteering, or service learning – 20 hours in total for the Bronze Award, 40 hours in total for the Silver Award, 60 hours in total for the Gold Award.

For further details on the Manchester Leadership Programme please visit: www.manchester.ac.uk/mlp

Interested in Summer Study?

The University of Manchester currently offers three Summer Schools for students who are looking for a short period of study abroad. Please note that each Summer School has their own independent application forms and procedures, and students should NOT complete the standard study abroad application to apply for any of these courses. Please visit the websites indicated for details of how to apply. Note that fees will always apply for these Summer Schools, including for Exchange Students.

European Business Summer Study Programme

This five-week long programme helps students understand the European political, economic and social environment, and is designed for business, management, law and international relations students who wish to work in international management. It is taught in the UK, France, Spain and the Czech Republic, and helps students understand business activities, firms and structures within the EU and Eastern Europe through a combination of teaching, coursework, company visits and practitioner input.

For further details, application forms and costs, please visit: www.mbs.ac.uk/executive-education/programmes/core-programmes/leadership/european-summer.aspx

English Language International Summer School

This intensive general English course is designed for students who wish to improve their overall English language skills with a focus on oral communication. In addition, there is a cultural element involving visits to areas and places of local interest. The course covers 11 weeks and it is possible to commence study on any Monday during the designated study period for a minimum period of three weeks.

For further details, application forms and costs, please visit: www.ucl.manchester.ac.uk/english/full-time/international/1%20summerschool

The Manchester International Summer School

This three-week long programme allows participants to explore British culture and history, and discover the contemporary city of Manchester and its surroundings.

Manchester was the world’s first city of the industrial revolution and has always been an important place for political thinkers and social reformers. You will get to explore Manchester through lectures and seminars with leading academics, visits to its famous Victorian buildings and its modern architecture, and the art and literature that responded to the massive social changes of the last two centuries.

For the past two hundred years, artists, writers, musicians, collectors and philanthropists have made Manchester a leading centre for the arts and culture. Great novels were written about Manchester, art galleries were opened and famous musicians performed here. Beyond the city, writers were also inspired by the landscapes of the Lake District and Yorkshire. We will take you to art galleries, libraries and also the houses where writers such as the Bronte sisters, John Ruskin and William Wordsworth lived and worked.

Today, Manchester is known throughout the world for its famous football teams and its popular music scene. We will explore the urban culture of the contemporary city, including the role of sport, music and design in the local and global identities of both Manchester and Liverpool.

I had an amazing experience. Although the teaching and examinations differed somewhat from what I am used to, it was surprisingly easy to get the information I needed, as my professors were more than helpful.

Susanne Hansen, Aalborg University, Denmark
Entry requirements

All applicants must be registered and be in good academic standing at their home university/college.

You should check with your home university as to whether they also have any requirements that you have to meet in order to be eligible to study abroad.

Academic standing
We normally require at least a B average (or a minimum 3.0 cumulative Grade Point Average on a 4.0 scale). This average should be maintained during the period of study immediately preceding the semester/year at The University of Manchester. You must be able to evidence at least two complete semesters of study on your academic transcript at the time of application.

English language proficiency

Worldwide Exchange and Fee-Paying Study Abroad Students
If English is not your first language, you will need to provide evidence of your English language proficiency. For most international students who have not achieved a grade C or above in GCSE, IGCSE or O-level English, you will be required to demonstrate English proficiency through an approved testing system such as IELTS, TOEFL, or Cambridge FSL. These are internationally-recognised assessments of English language proficiency, designed to determine the ability of non-native speakers of English who intend to study or train in English.

Please see our website for further information and for the minimum acceptable levels for admission to the Study Abroad Programme: www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges

If you are applying with a certificate which was achieved over two years before your application, then you will need to retake the test.

Erasmus Students

Whilst we expect Erasmus students to be proficient in English to the levels specified on our website, we do not require Erasmus students to provide certification of their English Language proficiency as part of our admission process.

English language support

We strongly encourage all non-native English speakers to meet our standard entry requirements, so we lean to support students whose first language is not English. If English is not your first language, you will need to provide evidence of your English language proficiency. For most international students who have not achieved a grade C or above in GCSE, IGCSE or O-level English, you will be required to demonstrate English proficiency through an approved testing system such as IELTS, TOEFL, or Cambridge FSL. If you are applying as a Study Abroad fee-paying student, you can apply in one of three ways:

- Direct to the Study Abroad Unit at The University of Manchester
- Through the Study Abroad Office of your home university (this may be a requirement in order to facilitate the transfer of credit for courses undertaken abroad)
- Through the College of Global Studies at Arcadia University (www.arcadia.edu/abroad); CCSA (www.ccsa.co.uk); or Globalinks (www.globalinksaabroad.org) (North American students only).

If you are applying as an Exchange Student (either non-EU or Erasmus) from a University of Manchester exchange partner, then your application process should be conducted through your home university Study Abroad Office or Office of International Programs.

Applications for entry in the 2014/15 academic year should be made using the online application system found at our website here: www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges

As part of the application process, you will need to upload copies of documents including:

- Your most recent academic transcript
- An academic reference (not required from Exchange students)
- ID page from your passport
- Evidence of English Language proficiency (if English is not your first language) - not required from Erasmus applicants, except those who are non-EU nationals applying for a Tier 4 Visa.
- Proposed Study Plan (template downloadable from our website)
- Personal Statement (template downloadable from our website)
- Other required documentation is listed at our website.

Application for housing is a separate online process, and should be made via the Accommodation Office website here: www.accommodation.manchester.ac.uk/application

(If you cannot apply for housing until you have received your University ID number contained in your offer letter from us.)

Choosing your course units

1. Visit the Study Abroad Unit website and select the link to course units. www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges

2. Click on the subject area(s) in which you are interested to see a list of specific course units taught. Each course unit has a code which indicates the level of the course and the time period during which it is offered.

Example course unit code interpretation

ENGL 20502: The Victorian Novel

20502: The initial number indicates the level of the course.
1. First Year course unit
2. Second Year course unit
3. Third Year course unit
4. Fourth Year course unit

20: The final number indicates the time period in which the course is offered.
1. Semester one (Autumn / Fall)
2. Semester two (Spring)
0. Full year

ENGL 20502 is a second year course unit taught in the Spring semester.

Please note that some course units in Engineering and Physical Sciences may have slightly different course codes. Please contact us if you require clarification.

3. Click on the course unit to view more detailed information such as course content, credit value, assessment and preliminary reading. If the course unit information is insufficient for you and your advisers to determine whether the course will meet your academic needs, then contact the Study Abroad Unit for help.

4. You will need to select a full course load: 60 Manchester credits per semester; 120 Manchester credits for the academic year.
You can, however, list up to two additional course units on your application to allow for timetable clashes.
You must list your course unit choices on the ‘Proposed Study Plan’ which forms part of your online application documentation.

It is important to discuss your course choices with your academic adviser at your home university to ensure that the courses that you take whilst you study at The University of Manchester are approved for credit transfer.

Credit equivalence
As a guide, the following translation of Manchester credits can be used, and as a general rule, 1 UK credit equates to 10 hours of work.

Manchester has little of the crowded loneliness or impersonality of London and its sons and daughters are a proud and friendly people – traits which rub off on its students.

Living costs in Manchester are similar to other major UK cities such as Birmingham and Nottingham, and are lower than in London. Manchester has approximately 80,000 students, the largest total outside of the capital, and shops, businesses and restaurants are all used to catering for students on a tight budget. You can get student discounts on almost everything, from travel and computers to movies and clothes.

Whether you are interested in Basketball, Dance, Film, Hiking, Swimming, Ice Skating, Jazz, Tai Chi, Tai Chi or Tennis, there are clubs to suit! The Times Good University Guide said: “Sports facilities, which were already first rate, have improved still further since the city hosted the Commonwealth Games.”

Tuition fees

These fees do not apply if you are participating in an exchange through a University of Manchester exchange partner. Students applying via a provider organisation such as Arcadia, CCSA or Globalinks, or as part of a group study programme, will also be advised of the applicable fees by the relevant organisation.
